

DENIS G. LEWANDOWSKI

Raleigh, NC 27610 (919) 231-6923 denislewandowski@aol.com

EDUCATION

Kent State University, Kent, Ohio

Ph.D in Clinical Psychology

December 1973

Kent State University, Kent, Ohio

M.A. in Clinical Psychology

March 1971

American International College, Springfield, Massachusetts

B.A. in Psychology

June 1967

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Psychologist

July 1986-August 1999, April 2000-April 2018

N.C. Parole Commission, Raleigh, NC

- Evaluated over 10,000 violent and sexual offenders for parole
- Communicated with individuals who have committed violent or sexually assaultive crimes
- Evaluated individuals suffering from significant mental or emotional disorders
- Consulted with Division of Prisons psychologists and prior records to determine individuals' suitability for parole
- Collaborated with prison administrators to develop and implement effective policies

Chief Psychologist

September 1999-March 2000

Central Prison, Raleigh, NC

- Supervised staff psychologists and social workers in providing inpatient mental health services
- Wrote and implemented programs to improve prison mental health services

Psychological Program Coordinator

July 1980-July 1986

N.C. Department of Correction, Raleigh, NC

- Assisted in the development of both residential and outpatient mental health and psychological service programs in eastern North Carolina
- Supervised head psychologists within these programs
- Developed and provided mental health training to psychologists and prison personnel
- Collaborated with program staff on cases that required direct and experienced psychological care

Adjunct Professor of Psychology

September 1975-June 1980

Vanderbilt-Peabody InterUniversity of Psychological and Counseling Center, Nashville, TN

- Conducted practicums in individual psychotherapy with M.A. and Ph.D. level graduate students
- Provided direct instruction in therapeutic principles

- Designed and implemented experiential exercises
- Supervised student evaluations of individuals in university communities, providing direct service as necessary
- Evaluated doctoral students to determine their progress in selected programs

Assistant Professor of Psychology September 1975-June 1980
Middle Tennessee State University, Murfreesboro, TN

- Developed and directed graduate assistant program
- Conducted courses in individual intelligence testing, projective techniques, objective personality analysis, psychopathology, personality, and correctional psychology.

Director September 1978-June 1980
Middle Tennessee State University Diagnostic Center, Murfreesboro, TN

- Collaborated with other mental health professionals to develop and direct mental health programs
- Strengthened community relationships with referral agencies to ensure maximum benefits from provided services
- Prepared and provided grant extensions and personnel policies
- Assisted in the financial management of the center and its programs

Staff Clinical Psychologist September 1973-August 1978
Middle Tennessee State University Diagnostic Center, Murfreesboro, TN

- Interviewed and selected M.A. psychologists and psychological examiners-in-training
- Supervised these individuals as they practiced in a clinical setting
- Conducted a 1-2 year clinical training experience for these individuals while providing psychological assessment and consulting services to the Department of Corrections in the Middle Tennessee area
- Oversaw evaluations of individuals of varying pathology, ranging from transient situational disorders to severely disturbed schizophrenic adolescents

Project Coordinator September 1973-January 1976
Tennessee's Law Enforcement Candidate Assessment Program, Middle Tennessee State University, Murfreesboro, TN

- Coordinated regional centers for administration of psychological tests to police candidates
- Administered individual tests to candidates who manifested indicators of psychological disturbance on group-administered screening instruments

OTHER PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Various experience in publications, conferences, and presentations. Detailed descriptions of these and other professional activities available upon request.