James R (Randy) Walker has almost 40 years' experience in Law Enforcement and served as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation for 21 years retiring in January 2004. During his service in the FBI, Mr. Walker was instrumental in the management, investigation, and prosecution of major high profile cases throughout the United States. He has extensive experience in white-collar crime violations, public corruption, and national security matters. He was the senior examiner and manager of the FBI's polygraph in North Carolina for 6 years.

Mr. Walker is a military veteran serving in the US Air Force from 1967-71 with a year of service in Thailand supporting the US mission in Vietnam. Mr. Walker is a 1973 graduate of Lander University with a B.S. in Business Administration and a 1978 graduate of Clemson University with a M.Ed in Vocational Counseling. His polygraph related education and experience is extensive. He graduated from the Defense Academy of Credibility Assessment (DACA) in 1998. DACA is considered the finest polygraph education facility in the world. In 1999, Mr. Walker completed DACA's course Examinations of Sexual Offenders and later that year was certified by the American Polygraph Association (APA) as a Polygraph Examiner of Sex Offenders.

Mr. Walker has performed polygraph related services to the FBI, the Federal Bureau of Prisons, the Defense Intelligence Agency, the U.S. State Department and numerous members of the judicial, legal, and business community. During his time with the State Department, Mr. Walker made numerous trips to Afghanistan and Iraq conducting counter-intelligence and counter-espionage polygraphs at the US Embassy including Al Qaeda terrorists involving inter-national security matters.

Mr. Walker specializes in complex results oriented polygraph examinations using the most reliable testing formats and state of the art equipment available. His professional affiliations include the American Polygraph Association, the North Carolina Polygraph Association, the South Carolina Association of Polygraph Examiners and the Society of Former Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He is licensed in North Carolina and South Carolina.
