Employment History

02/15/2017 to present

Licensed Psychologist, Health Service Provider-Psychologist, and Practice Owner North Carolina Psychological Consultants, PLLC

I provide psychological services to adults and adolescents with a wide range of psychiatric conditions including, but not limited to, depression, anxiety, paraphilic disorders, sexual addictions/compulsions, marital problems and much more. Currently, I hold a contract with the United States Probation Office in the Eastern District of North Carolina and provide evaluation and treatment services to post-conviction sex offenders on supervision. I am also a preferred treatment provider with the North Carolina Department of Public Safety for individuals convicted of sexual offenses in the State of North Carolina.

05/2007 to 03/2017

Clinical Coordinator, Commitment and Treatment Program for Sexually Dangerous Persons Federal Correctional Institution in Butner, North Carolina.

As the Clinical Coordinator, I was responsible for the clinical and administrative supervision of the Federal Bureau of Prisons' national program for inmates detained and civilly committed as Sexually Dangerous Persons pursuant to 18 USC § 4248. The CTP Clinical Coordinator supervises doctoral level psychologists, clinical social workers, and predoctoral psychology interns. The Clinical Coordinator is responsible for 1) designing, developing and coordinating the implementation of evidence-based clinical assessment, risk management, biopsychosocial treatment, and progress evaluation protocols for inmates primarily afflicted by paraphilic and personality disorders; 2) developing Conditional Release evaluation and risk management protocols; 3) developing clinical information management, documentation and monitoring systems; 4) implementing quality control and assurance systems for clinical programs; 5) assessing the training needs of, designing and implementing training and professional development and self-care programs for clinical and non-clinical staff; 6) reviewing and accommodating existing agency policy and departmental regulation to effectively implement a civil commitment program that meets the legal, constitutional and contemporary clinical standards; 7) providing expert consultation and training to the Bureau's executive staff, the United States Attorney's Office, the United States Probation Office, and the Administrative Office of the US Courts on all matters pertaining the confinement, treatment, risk management, and conditional release of civilly detained and committed inmates pursuant to 18 USC § 4248; 8) providing expert testimony in federal court, 9) coordinating a psychopharmacology clinic for the psychiatric management of paraphilias and other sexual disorders; and 10) participating in a multi-disciplinary team to coordinate all aspects of service delivery and inmate management.

01/1997 to 05/2007

Director of the Sex Offender Treatment Program (SOTP) and Hypersexuality Management Program (HMP) at the Federal Correctional Institution in Butner, North Carolina.

As SOTP/HMP Director, I was responsible for 1) coordinating all evaluation, behavior management and treatment protocols within a residential treatment program for incarcerated sexual offenders and hypersexual inmates in a medium security correctional institution; and 2) directly supervising and training psychologists, treatment specialists, post-doctoral fellows, and pre-doctoral psychology interns. In this position, I was also responsible for providing consultation on matters related to the design, implementation and evaluation of sex offender treatment programs within the Bureau of Prisons. Over the course of this ten-year tenure, I 1) designed evidence-based assessment and treatment protocols for sexual offenders and paraphiles with and without psychiatric co-morbidity; 2) incrementally expanded the SOTP from 24 to 112 beds; 3) designed, developed and implemented the HMP, a new BOP risk-management program for chronic exhibitionists, sexual addicts, hypersexual and highly disruptive inmates in BOP facilities; 4) wrote, consulted with, and/or significantly contributed to Bureau's Executive Staff and Information Papers and the development of treatment manuals and interactive journals (i.e., Change Companies), on matters related to sex offender treatment and risk management; 5) provided expert consultation and training services to the United States Probation Office, United States Attorney's Offices, United States Courts and Sentencing Commission, Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Marshal Service, and the Attorney General's Project Safe Childhood; and 6) provided expert written and oral testimony to a Congressional Subcommittee on matters pertaining to child pornography offenders.

09/1994 to 01/1997

Assistant Professor, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, Baylor College of Medicine.

My duties in this position included 1) the assessment and treatment of sexually abused children, their families, and perpetrators of sexual abuse; 2) evaluation of families undergoing child custody legal disputes; 3) consultation with mental health professionals, civil and criminal courts, and investigative and law enforcement personnel in cases of child sexual abuse; 4) supervision of the sex offender treatment component of the Family Reunification Treatment Program of The Children's Assessment Center; and 5) the supervision and training of pre-doctoral psychology interns.

Post-doctoral Fellowship and Pre-doctoral Internship in Clinical Psychology

1993 to 1994 Baylor College of Medicine, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences. Houston, Texas. Post-doctoral fellowship in clinical psychology specializing in the assessment and treatment of sexually abused children and sexual offenders, as well as forensic and child custody assessments.

1992 to 1993 Baylor College of Medicine, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences. Houston, Texas. APA-accredited predoctoral internship. Rotations included psychological testing of and psychotherapy with adult inpatients; outpatient psychotherapy with adults, adolescents, and children; outpatient psychological testing of children and adolescents; psychosexual evaluation and group therapy of adult sexual offenders; and child custody evaluations.
