

Charlotte – Mecklenburg Police Department Recovering Indented Writing Examination Checklist		Date:	Complaint #:
--	---	--------------	---------------------

The process used to perform the indented writing examination requested in this case followed the Document Section Standard Operating Procedures of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department Crime Laboratory (SOP IB2). The examination aides used are also listed in this procedure. The examination aides used and the actual order in which the procedures were carried out was left up to the discretion of the examiner.

Examiner: J. S. Taylor	Examination Start Date:	Examination End Date:
------------------------	-------------------------	-----------------------

Evidence Submitted in Case:

Complaint #	Item #	Evidence Submitted	Q	K
			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Oblique lighting was used to decipher possible indented writing impressions. (Y/N) _____

ESDA processing was used to decipher possible indented writing impressions. _____ (Y/N)

*Note – All ESDA processing must be accomplished using a known control standard. The known standard must give a positive result before processing can be considered complete.

Comments: