Appointed by Installation Commander as the expert on the psychological effects of trauma. Trained and lead TSR team in providing intervention and services following traumatic events on base, in community, and during deployment. First responder to base suicides. TSR members included mental health team, airman and family readiness, and chaplains.

Director of Psychological Health/Deputy Flight Commander

Active Duty USAF

May 2008-Aug 2009

Keesler AFB, MS

Directed 100% of outpatient mental health services while providing leadership for 25 providers and 18 support staff. Executed the behavioral health optimization program and developed productivity standards in family practice and internal medicine, resulting in a 35% increase in comprehensive behavioral health services to over 56k beneficiaries, saving $325k per year in network referrals. Optimized commander directed evaluations for six local military treatment facilities, resulting in a 50% increase in service efficiency and 100% compliance with health services inspection. Overhauled provider templates, which lead to a 35% increase in access to care and provider productivity.

Selected consultant to the Wing Commander and Medical Group Commander for improving the psychological health of the Wing. Provided mental health education/prevention to base at large, statistics and data analysis of mental health trends affecting base, program development and management. Leadership secured 2009 "AETC Behavioral Health Flight of the Year" award, increased access to care by 30%, increased patient satisfaction 40% and provider satisfaction 25%.
