I help brands build authentic stories through cinematic visuals, inspiring teams and over 20 years of pro-level experience.

EXPERIENCE

Successfully running all facets of production for a healthcare marketing firm. Responsible for hiring film crews, securing locations, managing six figure budgets, managing client relations and acquiring the appropriate equipment. Having extensive experience as a Cinematographer, editor and director of multi-camera in studio and field productions sets my abilities apart as a multi-tasking producer in a fast paced industry.
