

Joseph E. Bailer

Curriculum Vita

Fayetteville, NC 28306

Phone (910) 964-2206

joebailer@twc.com

Education:

Post Graduate 39 Hours in Criminal Justice Masters Program – Fayetteville State University, Fayetteville, NC

Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice – Fayetteville State University Concentration in Intelligence Studies (Terrorism/Homeland Security/Police Intelligence)
Fayetteville NC

Associates Degree Criminal Justice – Fayetteville Technical Community College
Fayetteville NC

Fayetteville Technical Community College Director of Public Safety and Security (Chief)

Responsible for the Public Safety and Security of all campuses of Fayetteville Technical Community College. Maintain the safety of 35,000 students per year Provide customer service to staff and students. Prepare staff and students for unforeseen emergencies. Liaison with all local, state and federal law enforcement agencies to maintain a safe and secure campus environment. Oversee 60 personnel both sworn and non-sworn for the college. Provide training areas for local law enforcement K9 detection teams.

Fayetteville Technical Community College Adjunct Instructor Fayetteville, NC

Instructor for Criminal Justice and Emergency Management curriculum classes. Counsel and strategize with students on educational goals. Prepare class learning objectives, outlines, PowerPoint's and research materials for the students learning experience.

Sand Hills Community College

Program Manager/Service Dog Trainer/Kennel Master

Pinehurst, North Carolina

Program Manager for the Puppies Assisting with Sight (PAWS) program at McCain Correctional Hospital. Taught inmates the fundamentals of canine obedience, dog psychology and dog sociology. Prepared puppies to become adult guide dogs with emphasis on Basic Obedience, Focus Training and Kennel Maintenance. Supervised inmates outside the correctional facility during outings where the canines were handled within civilian environments.

United States Military (ARMY)

As a member of the United States Army Southern Command, responsibilities included tactical resolution of special threat situations. Main responsibilities were to secure and protect seven military reservations, prepared for terrorist attacks, both foreign and domestic, barricaded incidents, with and without hostages, specialized in military police riot control, conducted high risk warrant apprehensions, drug raids, protection of dignitaries and responded to natural and manmade disasters. Management of Emergency Operations Command Post.

As a Kennel Master maintained a 20-dog kennel, financial management, counsel and supervised and trained twenty canine teams. Missions consisted deployment of Presidential explosives dog teams, narcotics dog teams to assist in border drug control. Prepared training for all assigned detector dogs both narcotic and explosive. Prepared canine teams for deployment to Iraq and Afghanistan. Instrumental in the security and policy change of deployment of Military Working Dog teams on military installations after September 11, 2001.

Assistant Kennel Master/Training NCO/Explosive Detector Dog Handler

Performed duties as training NCO and Assistant Kennel Master for a 20-dog kennel.

Responsible for operations, intelligence gathering, training, planning, exercises activities and the safekeeping of explosive and narcotic training aids.

Principal enlisted advisor to the commander.

Performed explosive detection, law enforcement, and security duties for the Fort Benning community, the United States Secret Service and other law enforcement agencies.

Completed numerous counter explosive missions with the United States Secret Service for the President and Vice President of the United States, United States Senators, various Heads of State, foreign dignitaries and ambassadors with mission success.

Performed over 950 explosive ordinance detection (EOD) missions.

Maintained assigned military working dog at 98% proficiency, exceeding the Department of Defense standard of 95%.

Prepared military working dog teams, both detector and patrol, for deployment to Iraq and Afghanistan.

Assisted in the converting of six phase dogs to the new "Out and Guard" technique.

Trained foreign police stationed at The United States Army School of the Americas in the utilization and capabilities of military working dogs with focus on explosives and narcotics detection.

Assisted in the training of local law enforcement agencies in their effort to implement police canine programs for their departments.

Coordinated training with civilian law enforcement agencies to stay current on new working dog training techniques.

Performed over 200 Military working dog demonstrations for the military community and civilian events as Noncommissioned Officer In Charge (NCOIC) for Military Working Dog Demo Team.

In charge of training of all assigned military working dog teams and certifications for Narcotic and Explosives teams.

Kennel Master / Narcotic Dog Trainer/Handler

Provided narcotic detection/interdiction and patrol enforcement operations for seven major defense sites in the Republic of Panama. Supported commanders in counter-drug trafficking and interdiction throughout the United States Army South Theater (Central and South America). Assisted the U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency and U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Division in narcotic operations. Supervised the training and certifications of four narcotics dog teams.

Conducted over 1000 narcotic detection missions; Responsible for the detection and confiscation of over 900 plus kilos of illegal narcotics being mailed through the United States Postal Service.

Trained Special Forces Soldiers, DEA agents, CIA agents and FBI agents attending the Jungle Operations Training Battalion's Air Crew Survival Course, in patrol, tracking and evading capture from military K9.

Military Schools:

The United States Air Force Military Working Dog Handler Course (18 Weeks)

Completed military working dog training with a focus on the principles of conditioning canines; the health and welfare of canines; the sociology and psychology of canines; maintaining proficiency of military working dogs in detection both narcotics and explosives, obedience, controlled aggression, scouting, building searches and tracking; maintaining military working dog training records, reports and forms and kennel maintenance.

Non-Commissioned Officer Academy

U.S. Army Special Reaction Team Course

Air Assault School

Air Crew Survival Cadre (Jungle Operations)

Civil Disturbance/Riot Training Course

Defense Hazardous Material/Waste Handling Course

Crisis/Hostage Negotiator

Lead Sexual Assault Investigator

Active Shooter Train the Trainer Law Enforcement Response

Professional Membership:

2024-Present International Police Working Dog Association (IPWDA)

2005-2013 - American Working Dog Association

2005-2012 - North Carolina Association of Private Investigators (NCAPI)

2012-Present - Military Police Regimental Association

1998-2012- Military Working Dog Association

Organization:

2011-Present - Alpha Phi Sigma Honor Society Honor Society

2011- Present- TAU Sigma Honor Society

College Service:

2015-Present Cumberland County K-12 Public Safety Board Member

2016- Present- Committee member -Fayetteville State University -Center for Defense and Homeland Security

2011- Center for Community Justice Service - Learning Fayetteville State University- GIS

Unpublished Reports:

Bailer, J. E. (2001). Deployment of Explosives Canine. Policy, United States Army , TRADOC, Fort Benning.

Bailer, J. E., Terry, M., & Howell, S. (1996). United States Army Southern Command Standard Operating Procedures for Special Reaction Team. Fort Clayton, Panama.